Rowland New Commissioner Of Flood Control District

Ed Rowland, 1367 Pleasant Hill Road, is a new commissioner of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

Rowland, past president of the Planning League of Contra Costa County and a member of the Diablo Highway Federation, will take the place of Commissioner L. I. McKim whose resignation has been accepted by the county supervisors.

T. S. Vanasek, chairman of the Flood Control District, has commended "the far-sighted cooperation" of Lafayette property owners who have granted easements for the lining of Lafayette Creek from Moraga Road downstream to a point near the junction of Las Trampas Creek.

Joseph E. Taylor, assistant district engineer, told a board meeting this week that 34 to 40 needed parcels have been acquired for the Zone 3-B project for a total cost of $175.

Vanasek, fearful that a heavy winter rainfall could cause flood conditions at various places in the county, said:

"Every 13 new homes in our county add a roof area equivalent to a paved area less ground to absorb water. We are years behind in constructing dams and each year's rainfall erodes channels wider and deeper to increase construction costs the following year."

School to Get Official Name

An official name for the new school at the Pine Grove will be considered at the September 6 meeting of the Orinda School District Board of Trustees, according to Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

Dr. Philip Lambert is principal of the school, which will accommodate the district's seventh and eighth graders and its completion in the latter part of October.

Construction costs amount to $478,978. Furniture comes to $22,000.

Included are 12 classrooms, a library, a home arts room, an industrial arts room, administration space, a teachers room and a multipurpose room.

The school will accommodate 440 pupils.

Seventh grade teachers include Miss Frances Tighe, Miss Peggy Rathert, Dan Wacks, Miss Norma Ruiz and Mrs. Phyllis Raab.

Eighth grade teachers include James Comer, Ted Boyce, William Hetter, Earl Gage, Robert Baylis and William Klein.

Librarian is Miss Mary Crawford. Miss Sarah Sabienan will serve as music teacher, commuting between Orinda School and the Pine Grove.

An industrial arts teacher has not been employed as yet, but Mrs. Marjorie Heid will instruct in home arts. Robert Sherman will teach physical education.

Most Miramonte Pupils Enrolled

Principal James Lewis of the new Miramonte High School reminds parents that all children who attended eighth grades in Orinda, Moraga or Canyon have already been registered.

Only new students in the area should register Monday and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the high school.

Shell Plans 'Standardized' Station in New District

Immediate construction of a "standardized, box-type, yellow enamel" service station in Orinda's Planned Neighborhood Business District was announced by Shell Oil Company Wednesday in a telephone call to James G. Hupp. He is chairman of the planning committee of the Orinda Association, and said he had had discussions with executives of the company prior to the announcement to call attention to General Petroleum Company's independent survey.

HUPP SAID this survey showed that Orinda residents don't like blatant structures of this type in a residential community.

"Presumably, the Shell Oil Company has chosen to disregard community opinion and wants to stand out like a sore thumb at the entrance to our planned shopping district, and opposite our schools and churches," said Hupp.

The station would be located on the west side of Orinda Highway on the first parcel north of the cloverleaf.

Shell Oil officials were contacted by The Sun yesterday, but had no comment at this time. Two tanks have been dropped off at the location, and Shell's contractor was on the site yesterday morning.

"IT'S A MATTER of public relations," said Hupp. "Shell says people were shown plans and approved them, but no one has any authority to approve plans."

His planning committee met Wednesday night and adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas there has been approved an unusual and outstanding planned neighborhood shopping district in Orinda, and whereas Shell Oil Company plans to construct a prefabricated, porcelain enamel service station of standardized design, and whereas architectural harmony of design materials and color is desirable as is illustrated by the first building constructed in the district,

"NOW THEREFORE be it resolved that the planning committee does hereby request the civic affairs committee recommend to the board of directors of the Orinda Association, the official representatives of the residents of the Elementary School District, that they ask the Shell Oil Company to reconsider its present plan to build a prefabricated porcelain enamel service station in the planned neighborhood shopping district and in its place to plan and construct a service station that will be more in harmony with the suburban residential character of Orinda."

Hupp said Standard Oil Company telephoned him yesterday to request a meeting with planning committee representatives to discuss plans for a service station across the street from the Shell property.

Supervisors Will Hear Both Sides Of Thomas Case

The board of supervisors will hear both sides of the disputed land application of Dr. W. J. Thomas at 11 a.m. September 12.

An unusual situation developed after the planning commission recommended approval of the permit August 2 when both sides filed an appeal with the board of supervisors.

Dr. Thomas proposes to build a professional building at the south east corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive.

HE OBJECTED to the imposed 25-foot setback from Moraga Highway stating that this condition would hinder accomplishment of maximum off-street parking on the lot.

Objectors appealed on the basis that the granting of the permit would be "detrimental to the health, safety, welfare and price structure of the community, and would have the effect of nullifying the intent and purpose of the master plan."

Objectors also stated that off-street parking would be insufficient to protect the community against the increased traffic hazards and congestion generated.

Dr. Thomas' attorney pointed out that "Dr. Thomas found there was no central building in Orinda for medical practice. Professional men are unhappy with the situation; good medical facilities will induce good medical men to locate and practice."

"IN TALKING WITH interested persons, we believe that majority opinion favors a medical building on the site," he added.

The planning commission approved the construction of a two-story office building with a pharmacy on the ground floor and three parking spaces provided for each professional suite.

R. E. Ruffing of Canyon narrowly escaped burning to death this week as a fire destroyed two cabins in the area.

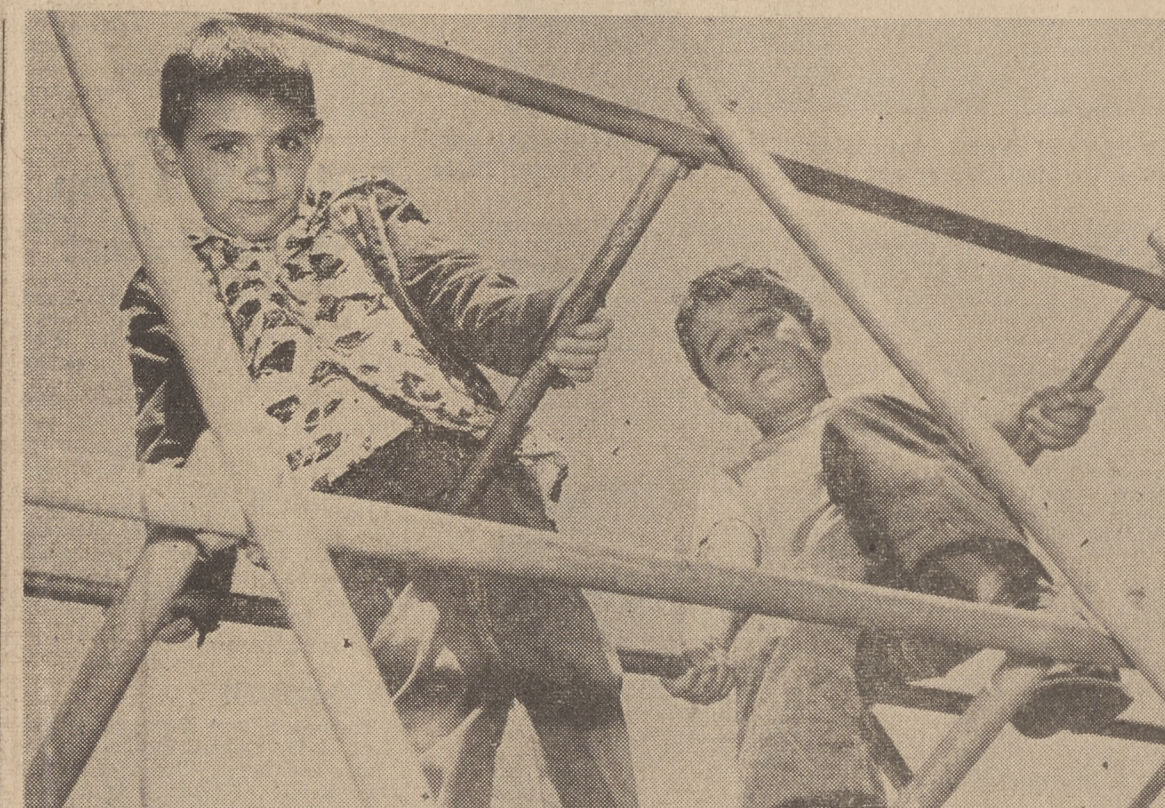

Asleep in one of the buildings, Mr. Ruffing was roused and taken to safety by a neighbor, Homer Price. Mr. Price had noticed flames rising from the cabin.

Called to fight the flames which were first noticed about 7 p.m. were nine pieces of fire fighting equipment from Moraga, Orinda, Lafayette and East Bay Municipal Utilities fire departments.

Cause of the fire which completely destroyed both buildings of wood construction were not known and no estimate of damage has been made.

Firemen were forced to fight several spot fires which started from embers carried by the wind as far as a quarter of a mile from the blazing cabins located on the side of a steep ravine.

Ruffing and a partner operated a small ceramics business in the cabins and used one for storage of ceramic supplies.

THESE TWO BOYS look a bit glum in spite of those playground bars, and the reason could well be thoughts of history books and chalk dust, arithmetic problems and study desks. Summer, like all good things, must end. Roving spirits must be confined, and the process of formal education continued. Sun Photo by L. John Larsen

Planners Deny Request for 'Quick' Rule on Bishop Ranch

The Contra Costa Planning Commission, Tuesday, overruled the request of Attorney George R. Gordon that it "immediately" rule on the application of Joseph O. Myers for a 3154-home subdivision on the Bishop Ranch in San Ramon Valley.

The commission scheduled September 13 for another hearing. At the first hearing, June 21, many residents of the area protested the proposed 1050-acre development which they termed "improper."

GORDON POINTED out that Myers, who is from San Jose, had filed the application for the San Ramon Development Company in a valley of Orinda," said Mrs. Schwatka.

"A professional office building, serving the area, does not fall within the 'outside' commercial classification anathema to the committee."

"Although individual members may feel that the permitting of retail sales of pharmaceuticals is an unwarranted extension of the business district, the committee itself remains, of necessity, neutral in the matter."

"I have no official connection with the Dr. Thomas matter, and I filed the notice of appeal solely as a convenience to the appellants," she concluded.

A LARGE GROUP of protesting citizens attended the June 21 discussion.

At that meeting, Myers told the commission that the land for the $45,000 Ramona Homes Development had not been purchased yet, but that he and his associates have agreed to buy the land for $2,400,000 if they get federal approval enabling them to obtain the proper financing.

Myers described the new community as containing 15,000 homes on quarter acre lots, a water system, sewage disposal, sidewalks, curbs and a circulating street 80 feet wide.

SCHOOL AND SHOPPING center sites have been designated, he added.

Representing the objectors, Attorney C. Wadsworth White called the proposal an "improper development." He said that nearby Alameda County is to be zoned for agricultural use with a five-acre minimum, and that he understood the Contra Costa County planning staff favors at least a one-acre minimum for the Bishop Ranch land.

Wadsworth pointed out the problems of $4,000,000 for seven new elementary schools, traffic control, law enforcement, water supply, fire protection and increased taxes to adjacent areas.

A LETTER of protest in June from residents of San Ramon Heights, was filed by W. D. Barton in which the burden on the school district and the "desecration of the rural atmosphere" was stressed.

The commission refused Tuesday to take action, either for or against the project, until the second hearing is held.

If the commission recommended denial, the applicant could appeal to the board of supervisors.

Superintendent Fred Dixon covered the break-through with heavy pieces of board nailed inside and out. It was then discovered that a number of other places on the west wall had been broken through and more patching was done.

The damage was reported that evening to the Sheriff's office in Martinez, who turned the matter over to Sgt. Thompson of the Walnut Creek Police Department, who checked the report and said the matter would be investigated thoroughly.

THIS IS THE SECOND time the clubhouse has been invaded, the first being just after the guard bars were installed inside the windows. A window was found broken and scuff marks on the wall indicated someone had squeezed through the 8-inch bar spacing and opened the front door. Again no serious damage was done and nothing was found missing.

The members were glad that the night watchman for the cement plants nearby keeps an eye on the clubhouse at night, but were concerned at the apparent lack of protection during the day now that construction work in the Broadway Shopping Center has closed off the view of the west side of the clubhouse. Sgt. Thompson promised that the Police Department would try to check the building from time to time during the day.

The business meeting of the club, held on the third Friday evening of each month, was devoted to a report on the annual public show held last June; to the acceptance of two new membership applications, and comment that harder work should be done to attract more members; to discussion of ways and means to put on another public show, and to the final decision that for the time being shows will be limited to the regular monthly open house on the last Friday evening of each month—the next being tonight—to which the public will be invited.

Republican Club Continues Drive For Flag Flying

Because of enthusiastic local response, the Orinda Republican Women's Club will continue its campaign to have an American flag in every home.

Three-by-five-foot flags with six-foot poles are available from Mrs. Russell Gilwee, CL 4-5921. The flags are priced at $3.75.

The renewed effort will emphasize a flag flying from every Orinda home on Labor Day, according to Mrs. Gilwee.

The campaign is part of a statewide project of the California Federation of Republican Women's clubs.

Rail Fans Find Model Thief Has No Train Yarn

The Great Train Robbery was re-enacted last week when discovery was made Friday night that the clubhouse of the Walnut Creek Model Railroad Society, Inc. had been broken into.

Following the monthly business meeting held earlier that evening, members inspected the clubhouse and found a 14-inch hole had been broken in the wall from the concealed, back side of the building.

A preliminary inspection failed to disclose anything missing, but there is so much equipment in the clubhouse it was impossible to make sure that some of it had not disappeared.

Superintendent Fred Dixon covered the break-through with heavy pieces of board nailed inside and out. It was then discovered that a number of other places on the west wall had been broken through and more patching was done.

The damage was reported that evening to the Sheriff's office in Martinez, who turned the matter over to Sgt. Thompson of the Walnut Creek Police Department, who checked the report and said the matter would be investigated thoroughly.

New Assessment Increase Strikes Veterans Hardest

The County Board of Supervisors met Friday to adopt a budget for the coming fiscal year which will result in a 56.1 cent cut in the tax rate, but which will still result in a higher tax bill for the average homeowner.

This paradox is resolved by the effect of the recent hike in assessed valuation of the county by the State Board of Equalization.

The supervisors adopted a budget of $24,826,508 which would indicate a tax rate of $2.028 per $100 assessed valuation to be set September 1.

The tax rate last year was $2.589 to provide for a budget of $22,608,931. However, in spite of the reduction of taxes the average tax bill will be increased slightly, especially that of veterans.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR D. M. Teeter said the new budget, if applied to last year's assessed valuation, would have produced a two cent cut in the tax rate. Because of the higher valuations and the fact that under the new formula some taxes previously paid by utilities will be shifted to private property, actual tax payments will increase slightly.

County Assessor C. L. Dunklee explained the matter, in relation to a veteran with an exemption, in this manner:

"THE STATE HAS HELD that veterans are being unfairly victimized by the inequality of the assessments. This is another matter, and we question this by simple arithmetic which proves that veterans will receive an increase actually in excess of 35 per cent."

(The state recently increased the assessed valuation of Contra Costa County by 35 per cent across the board.)

"A veteran who has property with an assessed valuation of $2500 with an exemption of $1000 under the county procedure has a net assessed valuation of $1500," said Dunklee.

"Now let's suppose that we take the $2500 and add the 35 per cent increase to it. The new assessed value of the state would be $3375, and the state would assess his property at $3375."

"NOW INSTEAD OF the $1500 which he would originally have with the veterans' exemption, he has a valuation of $3375, which is an increase of over 50 per cent. We too, say that the veterans are being victimized but not because some of them are not receiving exemption to which they are entitled, but because their increase in assessed value would be much larger than other property holders."

Teeter explained that as an example a piece of property assessed at $2000 last year and without exemption, paid $51.78. Under the new program the same property would be assessed at $2700 and will pay $54.75 in taxes.

Dunklee warned that "there are many ramifications to the problem, some of which have not yet even been considered. Of these things, you as taxpayers may be sure that you will have to bear a part of the load now carried by public utilities and that you will have to pay an increased part of your earnings for the support of state government."

"THESE FACTS, as important as they are, may seem minor. The question at hand is whether or not we are going to be able to control ourselves through home rule government or accept the mandates from the state capitol," he said.

Dunklee added, "If your tax bill is increased this year, it will certainly not be the fault of the assessor or other officials. We do not question the right of the state government to make such changes, but we certainly question the wisdom of making such moves so arbitrarily and hastily."

"The net result of this financial double talk will take money out of every taxpayers' pocket and certainly a move should not have been considered without further and more thorough study."

Requests for 2nd Polio Shot Must Be in by Thursday

Polio vaccination clinics, using National Foundation vaccine for first and second graders have now been completed, except for make-up clinics for those eligible children who have received the first injection and missed the second.

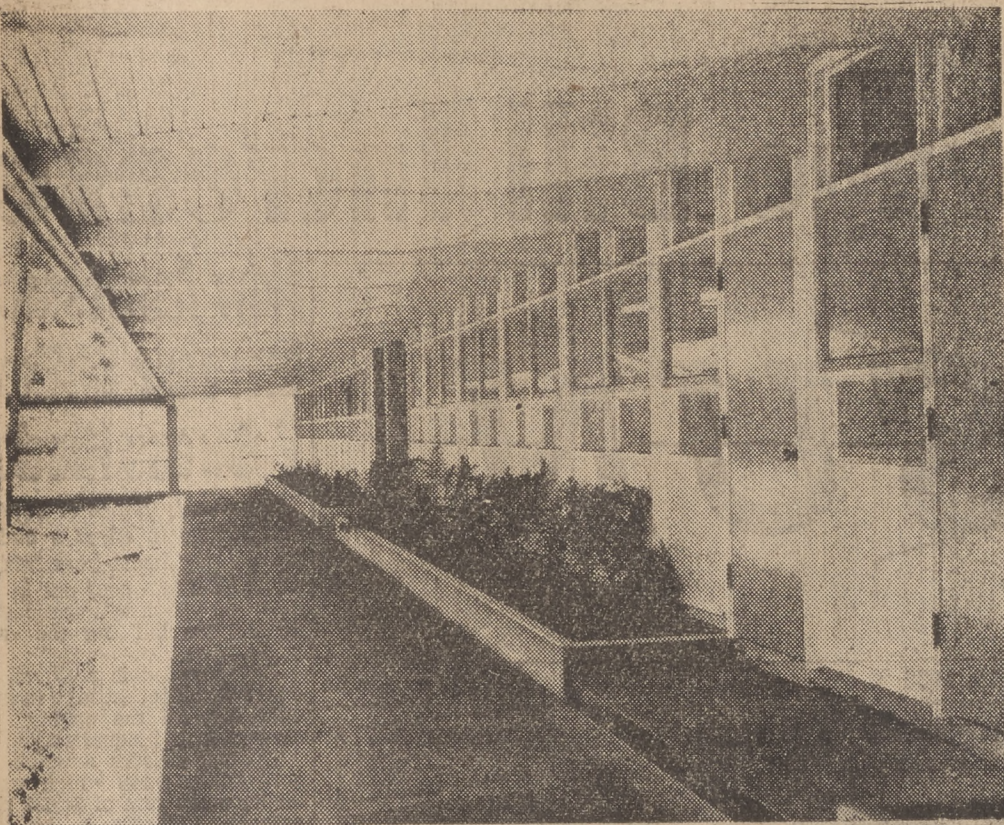

No first injections will be given at the make-up clinics, and second injections will be given by appointment only.

IN ORDER TO OBTAIN an appointment for the second injection for children who had the first injection in April or May, parents must send a written request to the County Health Department by September 1st giving the name of the child, the date and place of the first injection, and the name and address of the parents. An appointment card will then be mailed to the parent.

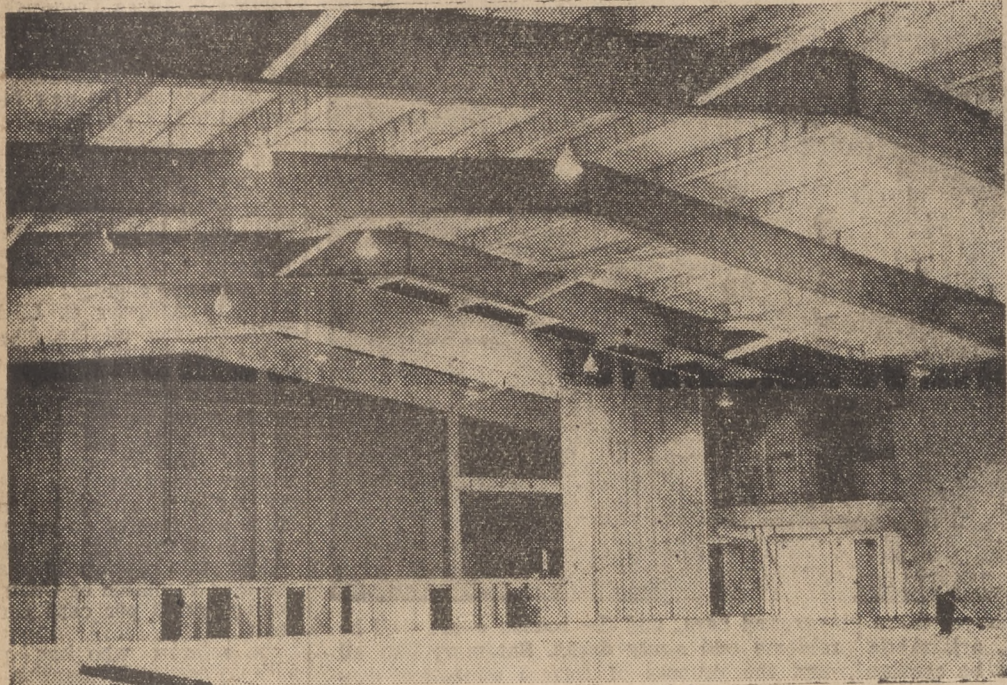

To date, approximately 300 such requests have been sent in. At present it is planned to give these second injections at the regular Health Department Immunization Clinics held in various areas in the county.

THE NATIONAL Foundation has set a deadline for the use of its vaccine. It will be absolutely impossible to continue the program after September.

Therefore parents are urged to get in their requests for an appointment prior to September 1st.

Big Crowd Enjoys JayCee Sponsored Buchanan Races

The winner of the main event in the first annual Buchanan Field races sponsored by the Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill Junior Chambers of Commerce, was Sterling Edwards, veteran South San Francisco sports car driver. Edwards was piloting a new Italian-made Ferrari Manza.

Approximately 12,000 fans lined the 2.3 mile course for the 15-event program which featured 137 drivers from California and Reno.

THE SPORTS SHOW'S proceeds will be donated to the two Chambers' youth welfare fund which supports such activities as the Walnut Creek Handicapped Boy Scouts, Pleasant Hill Teen-age Roadies and the Mount Diablo Therapy Center.

Lou Brero driving a Kurtis was the second-place winner in the 30-lap finale for modified cars over 1500 cc.

Edwards toured the 69-mile course in 32 minutes, 41 and eight-tenths seconds. He averaged 79.2 miles an hour and hit a top speed of 135 m.p.h.

SAM WEISS of Sacramento took first place in the second feature, a 30-lap contest for modified cars under 1500 cc.

Weiss sped his OSCA over the 11-bend course in 54 minutes, 55 and four-tenths seconds, an average of 79 miles an hour. Weiss' top speed was 102 m.p.h.

The only two injuries took place in the opening event of the day, a 10-lap race for modified cars under 1500 cc.

CECIL OLSON of El Cerrito suffered a fractured right arm when he flipped going into the first turn, of a dangerous bend off the 4200-foot straightaway.

Moments after Olson flipped, Russ Leighton of Mather Air Force Base lost his MG TF going into the same turn and rolled sideways a half-dozen times, bouncing along the track for 150 feet.

Leighton suffered broken ribs and multiple abrasions. Olson was treated at Martinez and released.

THE WINNER OF the 10-lap special race for ladies was Marion Lowe, wife of James R. Lowe, San Francisco regional director for the Sports Car Club of America, sanctioning body for yesterday's races.

In her Frazer Nash, Mrs. Lowe took a quick lead and stayed there.

Salvation Army Mail Campaign Gets Underway

Jack F. Schneider, Lafayette, and Stanley Allen, Orinda, Salvation Army committee chairmen, announced yesterday that a mail campaign for funds to support some 21 welfare and youth services is under way in the Diablo Valley area.

The chairmen explained that funds now being sought are for operating costs through the period ending December 31, 1955. Negotiations are under way to join with the local United Crusade which would then provide funds for the 1956 operations, but the present need for funds is very urgent, they pointed out.

Assisting Jack Schneider on the Lafayette committee are T. E. Latimer, treasurer, Mrs. William Freeman, W. B. Ellis, Dr. Dana Hamlin, Arthur C. W. Ireton, Miss Alice McMaster, Carl R. Westlund, Mrs. George Deubner, Mrs. Chauncey Pond Jr. and Bert L. Wright.

With Stanley Allen on the Orinda committee are Merle D. Brown, treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Betz, welfare secretary, Mrs. Wallace Alexander, A. J. Baix, Mrs. J. W. Dieterich, Mrs. George F. Hartzell, Don Huhter, Mrs. Benjamin A. Mallory and Joseph Sheaff.

Intimate Theater Excels in 'Picnic'

By THE REVIEWER

With an absolutely superb presentation of William Inge's tension fraught play "Picnic," Friday and Saturday at the Valley Art Center, the Intimate Theater of Walnut Creek rose far, very far above the ranks of 'little' theater and 'amateur' work.

The entire production was a happy combination of convincing casting, intelligent direction, brilliant individual performances, and an effective set depicting two small-town midwestern homes facing on a single back yard.

TO THE YARD comes a stranger. The play deals with the impact the stranger's coming has on the women who people the two homes.

The two exciting hours spent with the Intimate Theater could well be called "An evening with the family Dinkin, and Co." Leon Dinkin directed the play. His wife, Edith, did an outstanding job of suitably maintaining the balance, a play brim full with tumbling emotions. Hers was the role of kind, elderly Helen Potts who befriends the transient young male stranger and brings him into the lives of the Owens family that lives next door.

Daughter Deanna Dinkin portrayed the part of the youngest of the Owens, Millie, the unattractive, teenage intellectual. It was astonishing to see how completely, in every movement and inflection, 14-year-old Deanna conveyed the subtle anxieties of an aware youth caught among adult frustrations.

FRANCIS SHURLIFF was magnificent in the complex role of schoolteacher Rosemary Sidney. Her performance ranged from sweet girlish exuberance to malignant hysteria.

The touching role of Madge Owens who vainly tries to find an identity for herself in other than her beauty was very well done by attractive Corinne Neumann.

Madge's proper and socially prominent small-town boy friend was comfortably handled by James Lynde.

THE PART OF Hal Carter, the pathetic and buffoonish yet very disturbing stranger was quite adequately enacted by an appreciably virile Al Whitman.

Shirley Shaw as the prejudiced, and in the end resigned, Mrs. Owens, turned in a good performance. Gordon Kull did a grand job with the small but meaningful part of the paperboy, Harry Freeman also contributed to the evenings entertainment in the role of the schoolteacher's suitor.

son fluttered through the roles of the two giddy, spinster school-teachers.

THE REVIEWER recommends, without qualifications, tonight and tomorrow evenings last two performances of "Picnic" to be given in the Little Theater at Acalanes High School, Lafayette.

Admission will be $1. Tickets may be purchased at the door since there are no reserved seats. Curtain time is 8:30.

Bargain City Will Close Saturday

Bargain City, which has been operating outdoors at 1231 South Main Street, Walnut Creek, since fire gutted the building July 10, will "close its doors" Saturday, according to Owner Louis Albert.

Albert's suit for injunctive relief and a restraining order to halt the City of Walnut Creek's effort to shut down the store was withdrawn Monday.

JAY GRAVES, representing Albert, and King Crenson, acting city attorney for Walnut Creek, presented the compromise agreement to Judge Hugh Donovan. A hearing on Albert's challenge to the city order had been scheduled for Monday.

The council had previously voted to close Bargain City August 15, but a temporary restraining order was issued August 15 by Judge Ralph McGee.

The structure which housed the store was the former I.D.E.S. Hall owned by Valentino Pera of Orinda. The structure will be razed next week and the property cleared.

Albert yesterday said, "I would like to thank the mayor, councilmen and police department for their cooperation in this matter."

County Tells of Typist Openings

F. E. Emery, county personnel director, today announced that the Civil Service Commission is interested in securing qualified applicants for typist and stenographer positions, vacancies for which occur on a continuing basis in the county service.

In order to fill these needs, Emery indicates that a typist performance test is scheduled for tomorrow. Applicants successful in the typing test will be administered a written test at a later date. There is a particular need for qualified typists in the Martinez and Pittsburg areas as well as in the Martinez area.

Individuals who are interested are asked to submit their names at the Civil Service Commission Office, Room 229, Hall of Records, Martinez, so that they may be scheduled for the typing test. The examination is open to high school graduates who are able to demonstrate their ability to type at least 40 words per minute.

Summer Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

'TIS THE LAST NOTES OF SUMMER . . . for time is near when Mamas with their offspring trailing along will descend the stores to shop for new school clothes for the kids. Bathing suits are beginning to fray and look limp and canvas sneakers and keds are wearing thin and threadbare, not to mention mom's nerves! Shiny shoes, crisp jeans, plaid skirts, the inevitable jumper and a slick new lunch pail will soon replace the pall of tired summerware, patched-up tubes, and heelless socks.

Phyllis HARTANOV is already one step ahead of most of us, having done some early school shopping and even a bit of advance Xmas-buying while on a brief holiday to Carmel recently with her two daughters. That's like having your cake and eating it too, for where else can you find such a bright assortment of shoes as those lining Carmel's main street and have yourself a quick dip in the surf between purchases, too?

GLOBE-TROTTERS, we're-envious-dept.! Lila MURPHY sending colorful postcards from Rome, England, France, Switzerland, Scotland, will be sailing home soon on the Castel Felice liner into Quebec. . . . The Welcome Home sign is out in Sleepy Hollow for the Perc DAWSONS, due home any minute from a glamorous two-month tour of the Continent.

Capt. and Mrs. Willis PITKIN, USN, and daughter Beth are home from a long residence in SIAM, full of wonderful phenomenal experiences. Beth toured Europe, loved Switzerland, and summer-schooled at th Palma de Mallorca in Spain. . . . She'll attend Scripps College on a scholarship when the Fall term opens shortly. Megan MONAHAN is ready for 1st grade after covering 19,000 miles by land and sea while the rest of the Monahan family commuted between home and the Park Pool. At the moment, we're dusting off our Norwegian accent and "YA" is the standard household phrase!

THE TRAFFIC TO TAHOE WAS TERRIFIC and we're certain the congested roads was caused by the mass migration from Orinda to the popular Lake Resort all summer long. Among the Tahoe-Trekkers were the William DOUGLASSES, Carleton BLOCKS, Lloyd HECA-THORNS (who spent a full month there!), the Wallace ELLITTS, Ernest RAHMEYER, and Peggy and Bob FIELD who have plans for a Russian River stay in the offing.

The Eugene JONES family, Katy, Chucky, and Buzzy fished and swam at Johnsonville on the Feather River, and the Feather River Family Camp provided a week's relaxation for the Andrew HARTANOVs of Camino Don Miguel. George KIRBY was forced to REST on his vacation, bedded down in a local hospital for minor surgery and friends are glad to see Ann RYAN in action again, driving her new car, after such a long convalescence.

FAREWELL TO THE FOLLIARDS, Betty and Fred, who are transferring to Portland. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph BROTHERS christened their new sailboat built by Dr. B. himself in his Orinda garage, w/a first run at Pincrest, presumably on the lake. . . . Another launching recently when the Charles GOEBELS took their boat out for its first sailing at Shasta Dam. . . . The Ralph HOLMES family summered at Tuolumne.

The Neal GARRISONS were among the Reno-resorters. . . . The Robert MILLERS summer-roamed to Indiana where they spent 2 weeks at the lake home of friends where their four yr. old, Dirk, learned to aquaplane and the two older children, Jan and Sawna, became experts at water-skiing! Catalina was the chosen haven for two weeks for the Wynne BENTLEYS. . . . The Stanley BERGENSENS retreated to the Santa Cruz Mountains.

SO YOU THINK FLYING IS EASIER with children, etc.! The William LINCOLNS have had a well-traversed summer with their six children seeing many interesting sights but Barbara, flying PAA to LA for a family visit with the six, claims she's literally WALKED to L.A. having put on the mileage pacing the aisles while soaring high above, trying to keep track of six elusive moppets. . . . One of the twins, aged 2, turned up in the cockpit, while another was found rummaging in the baggage compartment. Still another managed to fall up the circular staircase of the double-decker plane. (We agree with Mrs. L. that it's safer to let them run OUR legs off ON the ground!)

During their southland sojourn, the Lincoln children visited the famous Knotts Berry Farm and also Disneyland. En route home from LA the Lincoln dropped daughter Beth off w/her swic suit to join the Jack McCAFFERYs and their Jill at the beach at Rio Del Mar. If it sounds like they gave Beth a parachute and said "jup," they didn't. The typewriter just isn't bothered w/details today.

AROUND ORINDA, members of the Lombardy Branch of Children's Hospital are busy making plans for a September Swim and Barbecued Steak Party. . . . Joan KENDALL is the capable Chairman, and reservations can be made now if you bump into Joan or any branch member. Women's Guild is sponsoring a series of 10 lessons by bridge expert. For tips and techniques on improving your bridge, the Santa Maria Mrs. Chas. FILES. Classes commence Thurs. Sept. 22 from 1-3 in the Parish Hall. Call Mrs. John EPPERSON at CL 4-3364 or Mrs. Hilbert EIWERT, CL 4-3589, for further info.

OVERHEARD IN BLACK'S the other evening. . . . A young lady Black's couldn't oblige with that one, although the delicatessen dept. asking if they carried "shuttlecocks, you know the Badminton birdies?" carries such rarities as Rattlesnake meat at $1.80 per tiny tin if that suits your temperamental tastes.

THE COOK ON OUR BLOCK blows her guests to a Baked Alaska the meringue before baking or broiling. Out of the oven, the shells are to outbake all Baked Alaska's by inserting the halved eggshells into filled w/you know what, a match is lit, and with a flourish and a small-sized fire, her proud hubby transports the flaming torchiered-treat to the table. All for now. I'm stirring up some good old jello!

Flickers Illustrate Local Ladies Charm

Men and women from both sides of the tunnel thronged the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley last Saturday to view the new fashion trends for fall.

The Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center and Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omicron Nu Sorority co-sponsored the luncheon and style review entitled "Artists and Models."

The DIABLO ART Association carried out the theme with an exhibit of paintings by talented local artists.

Staged in the beautiful setting of the Hotel Claremont, the decor featured artists' palettes, easels and paint brushes, fashion mannequins and traditional models' props.

Mrs. Fred C. von Guenther opened the fashion promenade wearing plaid Bermuda shorts. A man-tailored wool jacket and white knee length wool stocking completed her daytime outfit.

MRS. MIDGE HAYES added to the elegance of the occasion when she appeared in a red Portofino fabric coat with a white fox shawl type collar. Underneath the coat she wore a grey tweed fitted dress accented by a taffeta bow at the neckline and trimmed with gold buttons.

Mrs. Mel Nielson, a member of the Larks Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, received spontaneous applause for her charcoal grey sheath dress with high boat line neck and jeweled buttons on the sleeve cuffs.

The costume included a matching jacket lined with white satin and edged with dozens of pearls and iridescent beads. A beautiful white fox stole completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Martin A. Rotondo of Omega Nu Sorority displayed a white Italian sweater with hand crocheted at the neckline. Her cocktail costume was further carried out with a lined black skirt and mink stole with rhinestone accessories.

Other models who promenaded in the fashion line-up included Mrs. William A. Barber, Omega Nu; Mrs. A. R. Bliesner, Flicker Unit; Mrs. Jack W. Cooper, Flicker Unit; Mrs. Wayne C. Haas, Robin Unit; Mrs. Vincent Lucido, Starlings; Mrs. Kenneth P. Moyle, Flamigos; Mrs. James P. Read, Orioles; Mrs. Frances J. Saire, Mrs. E. N. Boyce, Linnetts; and Mrs. Charles L. Rodier, Towhee.

Flicker Unit members who assisted with arrangements for the event were Mrs. Kenneth A. Alexander, unit president; and Mesdames Nell Barker, James E. R. Blackman, Howard E. Burk, Henry E. Nelson, Leo J. Kieny, Richard W. Olsen, David Penna, Earle Romak, Edward W. Schumacher, Robert K. Short and Raymond C. Williams.

Omicron Nu members who served on the committee were Mesdames John B. Anderson, H. G. Brandenburg, William Barber, Jennings B. Coleman, Robert W. Fitch, Ivy A. Morris, Martin Rotondo, William Stevens, Robert M. Whalen and Richard L. Woodruff.

Messrs. Kenneth A. Alexander, Edward L. Slater and John J. Bell

acted as ushers and escorts for the models.

DIABLO ART Association members exhibiting more than 30 paintings were Mrs. Wel Thomason, association president; Robert Stevens, Dan Dascalles, Roy Albright, Hiram Moulendyke, Elsie Albright, Mary Rasmussen, Katie Madsen, Mary Way, Marguerite Requa, Emilie Dascalles, Edith Dinkin, Hazel Elling and Marianne Love.

Proceeds from the fashion-luncheon and art exhibit will go to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center which provides rehabilitation for the physically handicapped. The center is the only entirely community-supported rehabilitation center in the United States. It receives no grants or funds from foundations or agencies.

A major portion of the center's income is raised each year by ten auxiliary units comprised of about 350 volunteers and representing communities served by the center. Auxiliary members also provide free transportation to needy patients and assist as aides.

The center's rehabilitation services include physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and a sheltered workshop offered to patients on a full-pay, part-pay and free-care basis. A volunteer board of directors and medical advisory board watch over and guide the operation of the center.

To Err Is Human, But Fans Can't Forgive Football Ref

From now on the sport pages will be filled with pigskin news as the preps and colleges turn their attention to the gridiron game. There are an even dozen high schools in Contra Costa which means that better than a thousand high school players will be cavorting on the various fields throughout the area.

It's really big business when one realizes that in shoes alone more than $15,000 will be spent and its probably safe to say that 15 to 20 thousand people a week will watch them in action.

One of the big needs is more officials to run the host of games with varsity, junior varsity and frosh teams playing each week. Officiating is more than merely turning out to work the game. It means meetings every week with hours of rule studying plus a lot of time traveling to and from the games plus the fact that any wearer of the striped shirt is in for a good deal of abuse if things aren't going to some fans liking.

IT SHOULD be borne in mind that the pay is little for the time and effort involved and that being human, error is bound to creep in. An official can be right 99 times and then make a mistake the 100th time and that's the one they will remember.

There is the case of a college official who was working a College of Pacific game when Eddie LeBaron was doing the quarterbacking and on one play he "lost" the ball and blew the whistle on a player who didn't have the ball resulting in quite a mixup as a touchdown would have resulted as the defense was equally deceived by the slight-of-hand ball handling of Eddie.

The official who pulled the boot was on his way up in college football officiating but the incident of the miscall put him on the down slide and he never recovered. Eddie LeBaron fooled the opposition on many a play and is still doing it in pro circle as he led the Washington Redskins to an upset win over the Los Angeles Rams only last Sunday in one of the top professional games. He fooled an official and it made the headlines and finished his (the official's) pro career.

MOVING PICTURES are coming more and more into use in high school football. In fact, Piedmont High will photograph four games this year, one of them being the Acalanes game set as a season opener on Friday night, September 16.

The pictures will naturally be reviewed many times by the Piedmont coaches and then they have agreed to let Acalanes have a look-see, which should prove a valuable aid in judging personnel and checking on such things as blocking, defensive play and the running of plays.

College coaches have made extensive use of movies of their games for years.

BARGAIN CITY CLOSING SATURDAY

Bargain City, which has been operating outdoors at 1231 South Main St., Walnut Creek, since fire gutted the building July 10, will "close its doors" Saturday, according to owner Louis Albert.

Albert's suit to halt the City of Walnut Creek's effort to shut down the store was withdrawn Monday.

A hearing on Albert's challenge to the city order had been scheduled for Monday.

The council had previously voted to close Bargain City August 15, but a temporary restraining order was issued August 15 by Judge Ralph McGee.

Larry's Loses Still Gets State Tournament Bid

The two clubs representing the local area in the County Softball Tournament didn't win the crown, but did the next best when they wound up in the number two and three spots.

Shore Acres copped the title, defeating Larry's Flying A of the Walnut Creek League, 8-1, in the game, played under the lights of the Pittsburg Municipal Park August 16.

Kings Ford, the other Walnut Creek entry, wound up winning the consolation bracket with a 2-0 win over the Concord Electrics.

Even though finishing in the runner-up slot, Larry's drew a bid to the state tournament at Napa last week when one district failed to enter and Commissioner D. J. Whitney drew the right to enter a second club.

Sport Car Fans Plan Gymkhana

Sports car owners will gather Sunday at Clark's Moraga Center for an unusual "Gymkhana" wherein the driver must do such difficult tasks as bursting balloons while driving past them and balancing the car on a "teeter-board."

The event will be under the sponsorship of the Volkswagen Air-Cooled Club and will include three classes. Volkswagens, other small cars and a special ladies race will comprise the events.

"WE'D LIKE TO emphasize that this is not an event for 'hot-shots' only," said Charles W. Lucius, spokesman for the Volkswagen club. "We'd like to see the average Volkswagen or MG owner out there too."

The event will be classified for all small cars under 1500 cc displacement, and Clark's fountain will be open to provide refreshment for weary racers and excited spectators. Restroom facilities will also be available.

ENTRY FEE FOR contestants is $1.50, but there will be no charge for spectators. Events will start at 10 a.m. and "last until we get through," said Lucius. The course is expected to take about four minutes to run.

President of the organization is Gene Ryan, 91 Del Hambre Circle, Walnut Creek.

Mariachis from Guadalajara Entertain at Boyen Party

Highlighting an evening in "Old Mexico" at the John Boyen home recently, the famed tenor Jessie Mancillas surprised the host and hostess and their guests by bringing to the door in true Mexican tradition a group of mariachis. The mariachis, five musicians from Guadalajara, were all dressed in native costumes. Mancilla delighted the guests by singing his romantic and beautiful songs. Many Orindans remember Mancilla as the featured Mexican singer of the recent Orinda Fiesta. The Boyen home on 4 Via Flore-ado was decorated with lanterns hung throughout the patio and garden. After the cocktail hour, a genuine home-cooked tamale dinner was served. Mrs. Boyen has, through the past years, helped Mancillas climb the ladder of success in this country. Guests at the fiesta were the Mesdames and Messrs. Robert Rasch, Lee Chamberlain, Norman Parker, Clarence McManus, Ramon Montano, Robert Zell, Louis Boyen and Francis Luke; and the Misses Angie Boyen, Marion Montano and Cissy Montano.

'Old West' Theme for Dance

The "Days of '49," in the patio of the Danville Hotel, will be the setting for a dinner dance for members of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club and their husbands to-morrow evening. Chairmen are Mrs. E. F. Wilford, club president, and Mrs. Elliott Rose.

Two no-host cocktail parties will precede the gathering. Those planning to go to the home of the Wilfords on El Cavan are Messrs. and Mesdames: Water, Ammon, John Bannister, R. E. Bottjer, John Everett, Ernest Haynes, Al Johnson, Raymond Kline, Thomas Kling, Elliott Rose, Clinton Scarich, Robert Stewart, J. M. Speyer, Horton Hill, Ed Patterson, Gordon Weston and Ed Winters.

Alcazar Stages Thriller Monday

The first play of the 1955-56 Alcazar Theatre Subscription Series will be that Broadway suspense thriller "The Desperate Hours" opening at the Alcazar, San Francisco, Monday, direct from New York and co-starring William Garagan, Nancy Coleman, Richard Jaeskel and Barton MacLean. "They in turn will be aided and abetted by a large cast including Judson Pratt, George Grizzard, Mary Webster, Malcolm Brodick, Gene Blakely, Rusty Lane, Joe Bishop, David Alpert, Sara Anderson and others.

The story of "The Desperate Hours" concerns three escapees from a federal penitentiary who invade and take over a home and an entire household in a fashionable neighborhood awaiting the delivery of a load of money from a gangster moll.

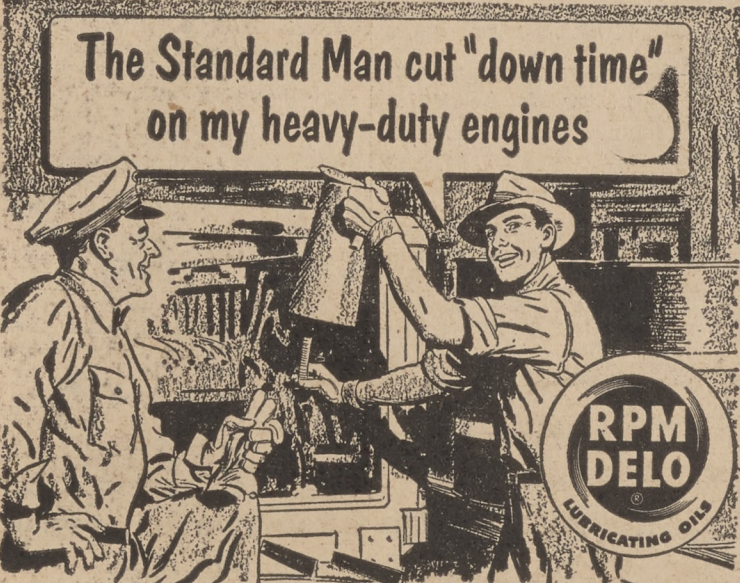

Christian Science

The way of health and holiness of dominion over fear and sin in which Christ Jesus came to teach, will be emphasized at services Sunday in Churches of Christ, Scientist, 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the Master's healing of the servant of the high priest as recorded in Luke's Gospel (22:50, 51): And one of them smote the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, "Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him."

"That he might liberally pour his dear-bought treasures into empty or sin-filled human storehouses, was the inspiration of Jesus' intense human sacrifice. In witness of his divine commission, he presented the proof that Life, Truth, and Love heal the sick and the sinning, and triumph over death through Mind, not matter. This was the highest proof he could have offered of divine Love."
